Why war? Essays and addresses on war and peace, by Nicholas Murray Butler ... New York, C. Scribner's sons; London, C. Scribner's sons, Ltd., 1940.

st. 823 p. 19".
"Appeals to public opinion ... made during the years 1908 and 1909 on either side of the Atlantic. Their object is twofold: first, to convince leaders of public opinion that the only sure way to prevent war is for the nations of the world to unite to remove the cause of war; and second, that violent hostilities having broken out ... the minds of men must now be turned to such post-war settlement of those differences which have brought about hostilities as will pave the way to an orderly and peaceful world."—Intro.

A provincial manual of later Roman law; the Calabrian Prochiron on servitudes & bye-laws incidental to the tenure of real property, rendered into English by Edwin Hanson Freshfield, M. A. Cambridge, Printed at the University press, 1921.

ix, 2, 130 p. 22^m.

"The Calabrian manual known as the Prochiron legum was first edited in 1862 by the late Professor Brundage ... from a manuscript, no. 845, in the Vatican library. It is identified with Brundage's, a village in the province of Catanzaro, and from the phonology was obviously prepared for practical use, probably in the reign of the Emperor Basil I, and subsequently revised in the reign of the Norman king, Roger II.
The author, wherever he was, compiled his manual from the two official manuals of the later Roman empire, the Ecloga of Leo III and the Prochiron nomos of Basil I."
